Genki Noodles & Sushi

At The Prado: 5590 Roswell Rd, Ste 100; Sandy Springs; 404.843.8319

Genki's second ATL location plates sushi and Asian-fusion in a zen-ish environment featuring natural wood floors, a boomerang-shaped seating area w/ giant silver bamboo sticks, and three fish tanks, one loaded with jellyfish. The menu expands on the original's, with new additions like the Volcano appetizer (mixed seafood in spicy aioli, topped w/ mozzarella & tobiko sprinkle), and the Snapping Samurai roll: shrimp tempura, cucumber & avocado, topped w/ red snapper, sliced cherry tomato & jalapeno. There're also new bottled beers like Oregon's Session, a flight of four sakes, plus 10 new cocktails like the Bacardi Dragon Berry, mint & lemonade "Intoxicating Dragon" -- stealing Puff's claim to fame, and leaving him with little more than strings, and sealing wax, and other fancy stuff.

Take a printed copy of this email to Genki at The Prado until November 25, and get a free appetizer up to \$10 w/ purchase of two drinks; click here to see the new Genki menu
